6. What is ActiveNet, and how do I sign up or get more information?

ActiveNet is an online platform designed to enhance and connect residents with the lifestyle of the community. By signing up to access the benefits of ActiveNet, such as viewing upcoming events, registering for classes, and making certain financial transactions online, residents can begin to further enjoy the Rancho Sahuarita lifestyle.

Current residents can sign up by visiting Club Rancho Sahuarita, where a Team Member will assist residents in ensuring that all contact details, emergency information, and identification photo(s) are updated. It only takes 5 minutes, after which residents can be on their way. New residents are invited to call 520-207-7730 to schedule an appointment for registration.

7. What is the new Rancho Sahuarita App, and how do I sign up or get more information?

The Rancho Sahuarita App is available for residents to download on both Apple App Store and Google Play Store, connecting them instantly in the palm of their hand.

Once a resident completes the registration process with Club Rancho Sahuarita, requests for log-in access to the Rancho Sahuarita App will be confirmed. Once access is confirmed, residents can use the app to view important amenity information, get instant announcements and updates, and see upcoming events and classes. More features will be expanded to residents in the coming months.

For additional help, contact Club Rancho Sahuarita at (520) 207-7730.

8. Who can I contact regarding the Rancho Sahuarita Village Program HOA and what does it offer?

All homeowners of the community pay a base monthly assessment (dues) into the HOA. Certain neighborhoods in the community also pay an additional assessment (for gated access, etc).

Real Estate Agents can direct specific assessment-related questions or HOA management, important documents (such as CC&Rs) to John Cousins with Associa Arizona by phone or email listed below:
