After over two decades as a resident in Rancho Sahuarita and over a decade of service as the Resident Board Member on the Rancho Sahuarita Village Program Board of Directors, Bob Webster is passing the torch to a new Resident Board Member this September, and is ready to embark on a new chapter. A passionate advocate for homeowners, Webster has been instrumental in helping to shape the community over the last several years.

With a distinguished four-decade career at the Tucson Police Department, Webster brought a unique blend of dedication, discipline, and community-centric focus to his role as a Resident Board Member. A tireless voice for residents, he ensured their concerns were consistently heard and addressed by the Board of Directors and Management Team at Rancho Sahuarita.

During his tenure as a community resource sergeant, Webster excelled at building bridges between law enforcement and the public. He implemented innovative programs designed to empower residents, such as neighborhood watch initiatives and crime prevention workshops. His ability to connect with people from all walks of life makes him a beloved and respected figure in the Rancho Sahuarita community.

Webster's commitment to upholding Rancho Sahuarita's high standards of living and safety is evident in every project and initiative he took on.

"Bob Webster's dedication to the residents of Rancho Sahuarita and his tireless work as a Resident Board Member have significantly contributed to making this community the exceptional place it is today," said Jeremy Sharpe, Managing Partner of Rancho Sahuarita. Sharpe continued, "Bob's commitment to creating a better life for fellow residents perfectly aligns with our mission, and his legacy will undoubtedly continue to inspire us as we move forward. We are incredibly grateful for his service and wish him all the best in his future endeavors."

"Over the ten years I've served, I've tried to always address resident concerns, and work closely with the other board members on issues and projects for the good of the community. I would like to thank all the residents who have supported me over the past years and look forward to continually striving to keep Rancho Sahuarita a great place to live."
